

AZM Education Services
Call for Internships applications 2026

We are a newly established consultancy firm working in the field of higher education, based in Astana.

We are looking for two interns, to start as soon as possible.

Intern – marketing and events

We are looking for an intern to help with marketing our newly established higher education consultancy. You will have a good theoretical understanding of marketing and communications with a focus on producing and delivering concise, clear and effective messages and campaigns across multiple digital channels (Web, LinkedIn, Instagram).

We are also looking for someone to support event organisation. This will include liaising with suppliers and venues, managing registrations, and assisting on the day.

Materials will need to be produced in English, Kazakh and Russian languages. Fluency in each language is preferred.

The internship will be paid minimum wage in accordance with national labor laws. The position will be remote, with regular meetings with the Directors, either online or in Astana. Duration of the internship is to be discussed.

Intern – data and research

We are looking for an intern to support the work of our higher education consultancy in the area of data and research. You should have an excellent theoretical and practical understanding of data analysis and data presentation, including tools such as Excel and Power Bi. The work will involve the collection, processing, analysis and presentation of higher education data from Kazakhstan and Central Asia.

You will need to have good spoken and written English, with fluency in Russian or Kazakh.

The internship will be paid minimum wage in accordance with national labor laws. The position will be remote, with regular meetings with the Directors, either online or in Astana. Duration of the internship is to be discussed.
